MCOE Teacher Credentialing Program Presents:
Standards-Driven Conversations:
Assessing and Developing Professional Expertise
Mentoring Matters led by Laura Lipton

June 27 & 28, 2013

9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Sunset Cultural Center

San Carlos Street at Ninth Avenue,
Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA 93921

July 25th & 26, 2013 Location TBA (Monterey Area)

This four-day seminar explores the important relationship between mentor teachers and their role in understanding novice to expert teaching. Based on the Mentoring Matters model of coaching-collaborating-consulting and learning focused conversations, these sessions offer practical tools, specific templates, and technical tips for support providers to help beginning teachers in increasing the expertise of their practice.

Outcomes Include:

- Align learning-focused conversations with the California Standards for the Teaching Profession
- Engage in evidence-based assessment and goal setting focused on specific teaching standards using the Continuum of Teaching Practice
- Apply developmentally appropriate tools and templates to build strategic teaching skills

Potential Attendees: Training will accommodate those with experience as well as those new to Mentoring Matters
