

Monterey County School District Survey Results

School District:	Do You Track incidents of Bullying?	What is the most prevalent form of bullying you are experiencing?	Are student leaders in your schools engaged in leading bullying prevention efforts?	Is your district interested in engaging in a comprehensive bullying prevention program?
Alisal Union School District	Data collection through SWIS, PBIS data collection software	Cyber Bullying and Name Calling; Very few incidents are happening in the majority of our schools as evidenced by lack of reporting to teachers and site administrators.	No	No
Chualar Union School District	Yes, we keep track of our bullying incidents through the Positive Behavior Intervention Support (PBIS) school-wide disciplinary system.	Verbal Bullying: Use of words, Statements, Name-Calling to gain power and control over their target.	Yes	Yes
Gonzales Unified School District	Yes, we use our student information system, SWIS and our online bullying reporting system - 3 new positions created as part of the 2016-17 LCAP - Youth development / PBIS Specialist; Data Strategist; Elementary Counseling Position	Cyber Bullying, Name Calling, Isolation, Lack of empathy for others	Yes	Not at this time
Greenfield Union School District	Our sites track incidents of bullying through the use of discipline referrals. Counselors also keep incident logs when they have counseled students on matters of bullying.	Verbal and Physical Bullying are the most prevalent	Yes, we have peer leaders at the middle school and we have counselors at all schools that work with students to address bullying concerns.	Yes
King City Union School District	Yes, incidents are tracked within our SIS, PowerSchool.	Verbal	The middle school is working towards this approach	Perhaps- once we know a bit more about which program is available and linked to PBIS efforts. We are interested in continuing this conversation.
North Monterey County Unified School District	Illuminate and SWIS via office discipline referrals	2015 - 2016 CHKS data indicates that Verbal Harassment is the most prevalent type of bullying though the majority of students do not experience Verbal Harassment	Yes through Link Crew and NMCHS PRIDE	Yes - Expect Respect is an evidence-based program that should be included in this list.
Pacific Grove Unified School District	Yes, in the incident / discipline section in our student data base system: PowerSchool	Cyber (Texting / Social Media)	Yes	Yes