MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

January 2014

We are embarking on a new era for public education with the new Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) that calls for local flexibility in the use and allocation of your district's funds. Along with this local flexibility comes accountability for results through the development of a Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP).

The Monterey County Office of Education is pleased to provide this resource guide to assist your school district in the development of your Local Control Accountability Plan. The guide offers tool for planning, including encouragement of reflective, focused dialogue and facilitation of conversations with various audiences.

As you develop your LCAP, I encourage your team to engage with and be inclusive of your entire community in our collective effort to support our schools and students as we prepare them for their future.

Sincerely,

Nancy Kotowski, Ph.D.
Monterey County Superintendent of Schools
